

Sexual & Reproductive Health

Community Health, 125 Campbell Street Swan Hill
Phone: 03 5033 9337 Email: chreception@shdh.org.au

Community Health offers a strictly confidential Sexual and Reproductive Health service provided onsite by a female Nurse Practitioner along with Sexual Health Nurses.

Nurse Practitioner Clinic

Nurse Practitioner services are free, no referral needed:

- Oral contraceptive prescriptions, advice and counselling
- Long-Acting Reversible Contraception (LARC) insertion/removal/change over
- Long-Acting Contraception- Contraceptive Injection
- Emergency contraception prescribing and administering
- Prescribing and assisting with medication management
- Unplanned pregnancy options, including termination of pregnancy
- Diagnostic investigations- pathology, radiology and ultrasound referrals
- Supporting gender journey and diversity
- Mental Health Assessment
- Immunisation administration, support and education
- STI/BBV risk assessment, testing and treatment
- Cervical screening
- Fertility Support
- Menopause management
- General health support and education

Note: Callers to please mention 'pregnancy choices' when requiring termination of pregnancy support.

Women's Clinic

Our Women's Clinic offers a confidential consultation to discuss any issues regarding sexual and reproductive health to women of all ages.

Service may incur a fee of $10 with no referral needed.

Clinic includes:

- Cervical screening
- Breast awareness education
- Contraception options
- Fertility awareness and education
- Pregnancy testing, support and options
- Menopause education and support
- Continence support
- STI information and education
- Women's health support and education

Free sanitary items and condoms available